Between The Raindrops English Edition

Between the Raindrops by Susan Schussler is a nice get-away from the usual romance novel. While this is Schussler's first novel to be published, she has skillfully developed her characters with the depth of someone who has written multiple successful novels.

Between the Raindrops was an entertaining read for me. Prior to signing up to review this book, I read the excerpt on the publisher's site and I was hooked. The idea of a male escort arriving at the wrong address in the middle of a storm and ending up being the white knight in shining armor because he saved someone from having to ride out an anxiety-producing storm alone and THAT serving as ...

Drawing on a five-year participant-observer study the evolution of politics education in the Sultanate of Oman from 2012 to 2019 is discussed. The aim is to shed light on the significance and implications of new explicitly politics-related curricula introduced at Sultan Qaboos University shortly after 'Arab Spring' protests shook the country in 2011.
